Our years at CHS were all filled with joy. There have been a few disappointments, but the happy moments are the ones that we remember best. We have tried to capture the moments of happiness, joy, and excitement that the whole school has experienced this year of 1977.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF '77

MEMORIES ARE FOREVER

The Seniors of '77 are proud to have the chance to show our appreciation to Mr. Glyn Burton and Miss Sarah Orr by dedicating this annual to them. They have been our class sponsors throughout our high school years and during this time they have given us leadership, understanding, and friendship. They have given of themselves in order to share with us some of our happiest moments.

Mr. Burton and Miss Sarah will always be remembered by

Superintendent's Message

It has been a satisfying experience being your administrator for the past two years. I hope it has been a positive learning experience for each of you.

I hope you will always have a warm place in your heart for Clarksburg High School. As you take your position in the game of life, may you remember that we have tried to prepare you for that game. Whatever, we have done, we have done it for, what we thought, was for your best interest.

Congratulations, Class of 1977, for a job well done!

James F. Jackson

Principal's Message

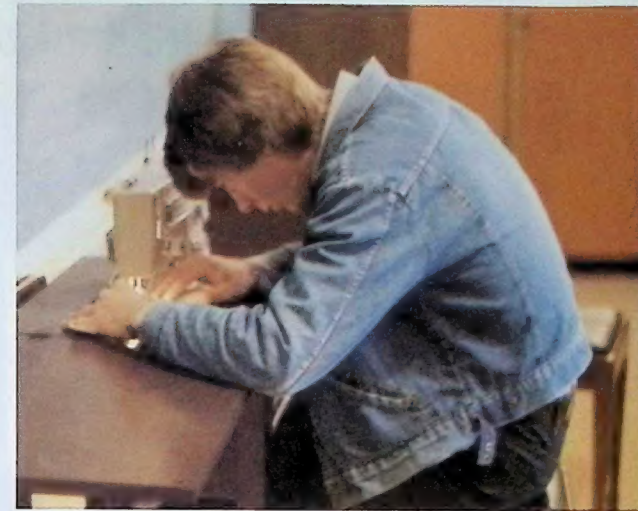

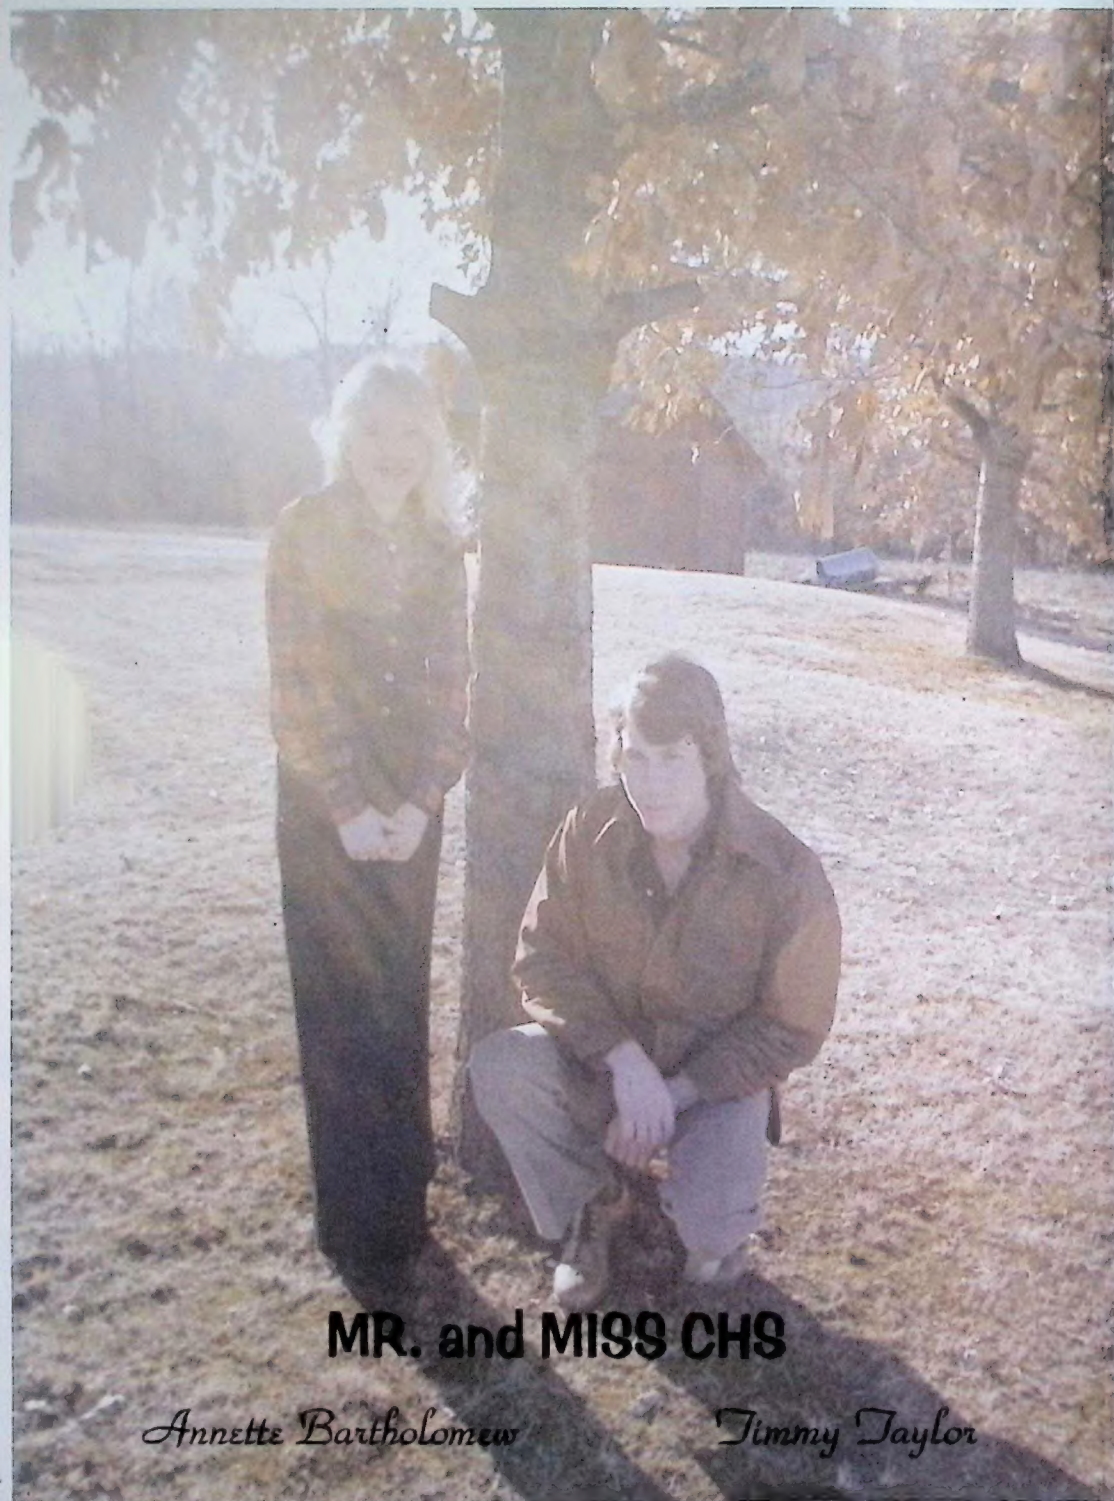

Pleasant events make for pleasant memories. I hope that you seniors of '77 will carry with you memories that are as pleasant as the ones I will have of this year, and that these memories of Clarksburg High School will always be a part of your life after graduation.

Best wishes to each of you.

"We believe that PEGGY VAUGHN will soon realize that people are not getting taller, she's shrinking."

"The U.S. Post Office has already issued a warrant for the arrest of DORIS PRITCHARD. It seems that in her haste to get to basketball games, she demolishes mailboxes."

"JEFF BOLEN will be the new host of the P.T.L. Club. Instead of Praise the Lord, it will be Pretty Tall Lies."

"We foresee BEVERLY TUCKER owning a big goat farm and raising a bunch of kids."

"TERRY JORDAN, in years to come, will replace both Grover and Oscar on Sesame Street. He will be known as 'Grover the Grouch'."

"I, Tim Taylor, bequeath Mark Milam all those 'wasted days and wasted nights'."

"I, Judy Blankenship, will Alesia Rainey a picture of her feet because she hasn't seen them since she was 12."

"The Seniors of '77 will Mrs. Roark a pair of tennis shoes which we intended for her to use when walking down the hall; however, we understand that there is a possibility that they will be more useful when she is working in her flower garden next year. Mrs. Roark, when working in your flowers, we hope you have pleasant memories of the Class of '77."

THIS MAGIC MOMENT

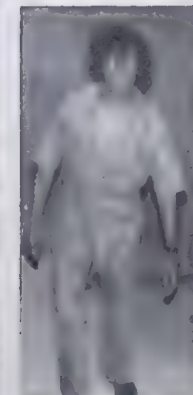

Poem

To the Seniors

Another year goes passing by,
Another Prom is here.
To some this brings a joyous
smile,
To others, brings a tear.
For four years you have tread
a path,
From dawn to setting sun,
But now the path gets steeper,
And the climb is just begun.
We're very glad to know you,
We'll miss you when you've gone.
And to the Class of '77,
We dedicate our Prom.

A collage of seven black and white photographs showing students in various vocational school settings. The top row features four photos: a student in a white and grey shirt looking down; a student in a white shirt working at a desk; two students, one in a dark shirt and one in a light shirt, working together; and a group of students in a classroom. The bottom row features three photos: two students, one in a patterned shirt and one in a white shirt, working together; two students, one in a dark shirt and one in a light shirt, working together; and a group of five students, three in the foreground and two in the background, working together. The text 'VOCATIONAL SCHOOL' is printed in a large, bold, sans-serif font across the top of the collage.

1. The first step is to identify the problem. This involves understanding the situation and the goals that need to be achieved.

JOYS OF COUNTRY LIVIN'

Livin' in the country is oh so fine;
It's even better than owning a gold mine,
Livin' in the country just suits me fine,
'Cause mine is yours and yours is mine.
Livin' in the city would be so awful;
For me it's just too unlawful.
Livin' in the city, you can barely survive,
With all that crime, I can see why.

I can't think of any better joy
Than for me to be a countryboy.
You just can't beat a real McCoy,
Like Hee Haw's ol' Buck and Rog.
To be a countryboy, I'd sure be proud;
The country ground, I have plowed,
The country air, I have breathed,
The country, I shall never leave!

— James Earl (Pete) Kelly
